

By the end of this workshop, participants should be better able to

Lecture (13:00-13:40)

- 1. Understand the indications and contraindications of repair of wounds by secondary intention, glue, tape, staple, and suture and block of nerves for repair.
- 2. Understand when to use certain suture materials and needle selection. Determine the need for tetanus and antibiotic prophylaxis and Know when to refer a wound to specialists (joint, tendon, concern for cosmetics (including follow up))

Hands-On (14:00 – 17:45)

14:00-14:50, 15:00-15:50, 16:00-16:50, 17:00-17:45

1. Be able to accurately describe and document the wound, wound care, and closure technique including skin avulsion repair (including skin tear), V and L shaped wound repair.
 - a) Method for describe and document the wound & acute wound care (dressing method and material)
 - b) Closure technique: Avulsion laceration repair (including skin tear), V and L shaped wound repair
2. Perform wound closure and exploration techniques including undermining a wound for tension reducing, dog ear repairs and incision for wound exploration.
 - a) Undermining a wound for tension reducing & Dog ear repairs
 - b) Incision for wound exploration
3. Be familiar with how to close lacerations of the ear lobe, nail bed, finger-tip and through and through lacerations of the mouth
 - a) Ear lobe & Through and through lacerations of the mouth
 - b) Nail bed and Finger-tip injury (including finger-tip amputation)
4. Perform wound closure technique including transposition, advancement, rotation flap
 - a) Transposition flap
 - b) Advancement & Rotation flap